Some people read about the symptoms of a disease and then imagine they suffer from it. They often worry themselves sick usually needlessly.

Never believe you have anything wrong unless your physician confirms it by his skilled diagnosis. If you have any pain or discomfort that persists, consult your physician instead of worrying about it. There are few diseases now that cannot be relieved if the diagnosis is made early.

What's it Got that Everyone's After?

We figured folks would go for the '57 Buick and big.

But we sure didn't figure this—the most rousing reception we've ever seen in all our years of selling new Buicks.

We're getting more enthusiastic talk - along with the signed orders-than ever before. And, neighbor, if you want to know why - listen:

This '57 Buick has that sleek low-sweep styling that today's moderns want - and it's here in extra-long measure, in the lowest Buick yet.

It has the room they want - for Buick's new wide-frame chassis permits a sports-car silhouette with more interior roominess than even last year's spacious Buicks.

It has newness everywhere, and newness that's wanted ...

A smart new panoramic windshield. The surety of a new "nested" ride. A brilliant new handling and levelized braking that come of an ingenious new ball-joint suspension. It even has a new Safety-Minder* that watches your miles-perhour for you.

U. S. Highway 45 South

But even more important, this rakish sweep of automobile has a new kind of instant responseand that's the biggest reason for the soaring popularity of the newest Buick yet.

For here is performance—smooth as spun silk unleashed by a totally new V8 engine 364 cubic inches big, and with the highest compression. torque and horsepower in Buick annals.

And here, to deliver that might, is the powerpitch action of an advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflow.* A Dynaflow of such instantaneous obedience, such smooth and versatile control in "Drive" - the need for "Low" is virtually ended.

In all truth, you've never bossed a car so keenly alive, so smooth in motion, so solid in feel. It's ahead of its time, ahead of the industry-even ahead of your great expectations.

Come check up on all this. Come drive this shoulder-high sweetheart-today.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super end Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special. Sejecy-Minder standard on Roadmaster, optional other Series.

Newest Buick Yet.

Duck Likes Free Gov't Corn at Crab Orchard

ORDILL, III. M-"Blackie," a trap-happy duck, apparently knows a good refuge when he finds one.

Blackie, a native of Labrador or Quebec, was banded at Crab Orchard National Wildlife Refuge in 1953 in a study of the traveling habits of ducks.

He likes the free government corn in the traps at Crab Orchard so well that he's been trapped every year. This year he has swum into the traps four times. Blackie was liberated this week after a television appearance with Refuge Manager Harry Stiles on Station WSIL at Harrisburg.

But he's expected back at the refuge unless some hunter bags him.

A FULL REPORT of the activities of Evangelist

Started preaching the first week in June, 1956, and was licensed to preach on June 10th, 1956, by the McKinley Avenue Baptist Church, where he was a member.

Ordained November 11th, 1956, by North Williford Baptist Church at Dorris Heights, where he is the Pastor.

In the six months that he has preached, he has held revivals all over southern Illinois. The following sermon is a report on this preaching:

SCRIPTURE (Luke 17:7-10): But, which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, go and sit down to meat. And, will not rather say unto him, make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken, and afterward thou shalt eat and drink? Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not. So, likewise, ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, we are unprofitable servants: WE HAVE DONE THAT WHICH WAS OUR DUTY TO DO.

"First of all let me say that I believe the Bible teaches that when God calls a person into service for him, especially the ministry, that God will give him the MESSAGE, God will give him the STRENGTH, God will give him the COURAGE, and God will OPEN THE DOORS, just as He did for Amos (Amos 7:12-17). So after accepting the call to preach, I have only done what was my duty to do, and God certainly has kept his end of the bargain.

THE ONLY MESSAGE:

"YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN. You ask, how can one be born again? The Bible says to repent of your sins, and accept Jesus as your personal savior. You say you have no sins... THE BIBLE SAYS YOU WERE BORN IN SIN (Psalms 51:5... Behold I was shapen in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me; Romans 3:10... There is none righteous, No not one; Romans 3:23... For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God.). Yes my friend, God has plainly told us in the Bible (John 3:3): EXCEPT A MAN BE BORN AGAIN HE CANNOT SEE THE KINGDOM OF GOD. And, I feel it is my duty to tell you this.

GOD WILL GIVE YOU THE STRENGTH AND COURAGE:

"Yes, my friend, if God can take a person like me, and lift me up out of the pits of sin, and turn me completely around, just look what he can do for you. No matter who you are, where you come from, how far down the road of sin you've been, or how deep in sin you are right now, if you will go to God, repent of your sins, and ask God to save you, he'll do it. The Bible says (John 6:37): HIM THAT COMETH TO ME, I WILL IN NO WISE CAST OUT. God will give you the strength and courage, to overcome whatever obstacle the Devil puts in your way. You say you can't hold out? The Bible says (Romans 8:38-39): For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. After you have accepted Jesus as your personal Savior, you just let Him do the keeping, you do the praying. God has never lost one of His children yet, and he never will. And I feel it is my duty to tell you this.

GOD HAS OPENED THE DOORS:

"In the six months I have been preaching, I have preached every night with the excention of eight, and sometimes three times a day, in the following towns: Harrisburg, Carrier Mills, Harco, Equality, Stonefort, Galatia, Shawneetown, Energy, Herrin, Raleigh, Ridgway, Mt. Vernon, Broughton, plus the city hall at Harrisburg, New Hope church, McKinley Mission, North America church, Bankston Fork, Mt. Vernon Rescue Mission, and the county jail at Harrisburg, and have served as announcer on the TV Baptist Hour. Some of these were two-week revivals, some were one-week revivals, and some were Sunday only. In this six months of preaching, there have been approximately 475 different decisions for Christ (only God has the correct record), 212 conversions, 187 rededications, 31 who started tithing, 45 other decisions, and three surrendered for special service. Of the 212 conversions, 185 were baptized into Southern Missionary Baptist churches. ONE THING THAT REALLY MAKES YOUR HEART REJOICE IS TO SEE YOUNG PEOPLE WALK DOWN THE AISLE TO MAKE THEIR LIVES COUNT FOR GOD . . . AT LEAST 300 OF THEM.

"Right here I would like to say thanks to the pastors of the different churches, for all the help that has been extended to me in this ministry.

GOD WILL OPEN THE DOORS IN THE FUTURE:

"Starting January 1st, I will be in a revival at Goreville, then on to West Frankfort, Carbondale, Carmi, Long Branch, Galatia, McKinley Avenue in Harrisburg, Eldorado, Benton, and Enfield. As it is right now I am engaged from January through June, 1957, with more calls coming in every week. Yes, God has said He will give you the message, He will give you the strength, He will give you the courage, and He will open the doors. Yet, there is so much more we could do, compared to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We are unprofitable servants... we have done that which was our duty to do. Have you?

"In closing, perhaps you wonder why this writeup... am I looking for glory? Listen, my friend... I had all the glory I needed, back when I was making twice as much money as I now do. I only want to take this means of letting you see what God can do for a person, and maybe lead one of you to the Lord, or inspire Christians to seek out lost people and lead them to the Lord. If you feel you would like to write me a note, please do. Just address your letter to Evangelist Leroy Marvel, Post Office, Harrisburg. If this short message has helped you in any way, just let me know."

Sincerely, LEROY MARVEL

Tex Darrow came in. Dan watched him through the bar mirror and something in the man's attitude made him alert. There was something of suppressed excitement in the quick cut of the black eyes. He saw Juarez at the far end of the bar and suddenly veered off to

He spoke to Juarez, lips barely moving. Dan saw the breed's redrimmed blue eyes widen and then Tex quickly grabbed the man's arm in a warning. Juarez cut a quick glance toward Bruhn and then assumed a casual air as false as a sleeping rattler's.

Dan waited, feeling the mounting tension in the room. It was nothing tangible, simply a hunch so strong that he finally turned from the bar and walked outside.

Something important stirred among those outlaws, something that concerned them all. Suddenly Dan wondered where Hiatt was Perhaps, in some way, the gang learned that the man might turn against them.

He crossed the street to the general store. Ernine and Vic were alone in the building. Vic looked up from a box he had brought from the storeroom, nodded, and continued checking the invoice. Dan walked up to the counter close to Ernine.

"Where's Hiatt?"

She looked up, surprised, threw a quick glance at her father. "I don't know, Dan. What concern is it of mine?" Dan spoke in a quick whisper. "He talked to me, you know.

Where is he?" Again she glanced at her father at the back of the store, engrossed in his work. "He went to the livery stable five minutes ago." Dan nodded and left the store. He came out on the porch and looked across the street at the stable. He saw Hiatt come to one of the dusty office windows and look out on the street, his hands shoved in his pockets. Dan knew relief. Whatever went on at the bar did not involve Hiatt, for there the man stood obviously thinking over Dan's proposition.

Relieved, Dan's gaze idly turned toward the Squaw Creek Road. A single speck broke the white expanse of snow, Vivian McLear working her way toward the vil-

A movement to his right caught crossed the street and stood swaying at the foot of the Wyoming Bar steps. Dan stared in surprise. It was the first he had seen of the big blacksmith since the bandits had come to the town.

George stood spread-legged, staring up at the saloon, his bullet head hunched between his wide shoulders. He clutched a dirty blanket about him, one end trailing in the snow. He wore no hat and his wiry hair stood stiff and wild. Drunk, Dan knew, and some impulse had sent him wandering the

It had happened before, and people stayed out of George's way. He was unpredictable, mean. If he was spoken to, he might pay no attention or, again, he might fell the speaker with a blow of his mighty fist. Dan straightened, remembering the tension among the outlaws. If George wandered in there now, his belligerence might set off a powder keg.

Dan jumped down the steps, thinking he might head George off. But the big blacksmith suddenly mounted the steps of the saloon and weaved across the porch to the door. Dan called his name but George paid no attention. George disappeared inside. Dan followed him.

George had trailed his blanket across the room to the bar. The outlaws made way for him. Dan saw Egan nudge Juarez and grin. The rest watched amusedly.

Dan walked swiftly to the bar. He could see George's face reflected in the mirror. The big lips were moist and slack, and the lines of his face had deepened, dulling his expression. His eyes were glazed,
